

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

There is no hard evidence that cell phone use doesn't interfere with navigational instruments. The introduction of cell phone use in the cabin will not only increase tension among passengers, it will compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order in an emergency. Cell phone use could also enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

As a frequent flyer, the last thing I want to do is listen to fellow passengers conversations for 3,4, 5 or more hours. Cell phones have already invaded all aspects of our lives. You can't even have a nice dinner out or see a movie without having to listen to rude cell phone users. Please, after a long business trip or even going on a vacation, I would like to relax and unwind or god forbid, take a nap.

Please leave the current rules in effect and save our lives and our sanity.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Tammy Ross
